John E. Bartkevicius (Nov. 7th)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace... grant that where there is doubt, faith and where there is sadness, joy. John E. Bartkevicius was a penitent man who held his Church and spirituality dear. They say that time spent laughing is time spent with God. John enjoyed sharing his smiles with his friends and family.

He was a good husband, brother and friend who cared deeply about people. His generosity had made him a fisher of men. The faithful shall be set free of earthly bonds and their spirit shall soar as a dove singing praises eternally. On Monday October 28th, 2019, after just 61 years, Heaven had lit a way and John's soul had risen like incense from Jefferson Hospital in Washington Twp.

John had spent his formative years at St. Mary's Church in Gloucester City. He had been a parishioner of St. Joachim Parish/ Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church in Bellmawr and found his little patch of heaven living with his brother in Runnemede, after moving from Bellmawr.

John had worked in Camden County at the Highway Dept for many years and enjoyed spending time at home in Bible study or relaxing watching a movie. He was an avid Philadelphia Sports fan cheering on the Phillies and Flyers but just missed seeing Joe Girardi get hired.

How terrible it is to love something that death can touch? No matter how much faith we have, we lose people. But, you never forget them and sometimes, it's those memories that give us the strength to go on.

John is the son of the late Justin and Joan (nee Thomashitis) Bartkevicius and is the brother of Joseph and his wife Diane, Justin and his wife Beverly, Mary Bartkevicius and the late Bruce. He is also survived and will be sadly missed by his nieces; Rochelle, Holly and Abby Bartkevicius.

Bury my body but not my beliefs. Give my sins to the devil, my soul to god. If by chance you wish to remember me, do it with a kind deed or word to someone who needs you. If you do all i have asked, I will live forever. As an expression of sympathy and in lieu of flowers, contributions in John's memory can be made to Cathedral Kitchen 1514 Federal St. St. Camden, NJ 08105 www.cathedralkitchen.org

Funeral arrangements entrusted to the McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth St., Gloucester City.

Patricia E. Rodi (Nov. 28th)

A Funeral Service was held at the Gardner Funeral Home, 126 S. Black Horse Pike, Runnemede, for Patricia E. Rodi (nee Clark), 76, of Runnemede, who passed away on November 17, 2019.

Patricia was reunited for eternity with her beloved husband, Jim, and family pet Daisy. At long last Pat and Jim will be able to enjoy teasing each other, taking in their favorite television programs and enjoying lazy days at Heaven's shore while watching over Lynn, Mark, and Millie as well as Parker, Barbara and Steve.

In her 76 years Pat accomplished many things as a wife and mother. From growing up in Audubon and as a long-time resident of Runnemede, and a shore-time resident of Ocean Sands in Seaville, Pat had many neighborhood friends and genuinely enjoyed watching other families grow while she was raising her own. She was very proud of her family and never passed up an opportunity to share their accomplishments with pride and adoration.

Pat will be remembered for her fiery red hair, reflecting her passion for a life well lived with love and laughter, as well as her quick wit and well-timed humor. Her love of the shore, music, and all things Flyers was a part of what made Pat so much fun to spend time with. There are a multitude of memories made throughout the years with Jim, Lynn, Mark, Millie and other close friends and family members that remain with us, keeping Pat alive in our hearts.

Interment was at Locustwood Memorial Park, Cherry Hill.

In lieu of flowers contributions can be made in Pat's honor to Samaritan Healthcare & Hospice, Development Office, 5 Eves Drive, Suite 300, Marlton, NJ 08053 or online at <https://samaritannj.org/giving/donate-now/>.
