Charles Lee Coval (July 5th)

Son of the late Nellie Gardner and William Coval, was born on April 15, 1937 in Pantego, North Carolina and reared in Portsmouth, Virginia. Later as a young man, Charles joined the United States Army. After being honorably discharged he settled in Asbury Park, New Jersey but later moved to Atlantic City, New Jersey.

While in Atlantic City, he met and married the former Naomi Patricia Helen Downing and from this union, they had two children, Charpata and Willanchas. He was a man of many talents and worked in the hospitality industry as a taxicab driver and food vendor. Considered to be a “Chef Extraordinaire”, in midlife, Charles owned a grocery store and several eateries in Atlantic City, New Jersey. He was known for his extroverted personality and enjoyed writing poems and lyrics to original melodies.

In later years, he accepted Jesus Christ as his savior. After this new change in his life, he would find himself sharing the Word with others at the city park. Charles would say, “I don’t know what I would do without Christ!” Although he didn’t have much at times, he was willing to cook food to share with others.

On Tuesday, June 26, 2018, Charles departed this life in Egg Harbor, New Jersey. His sister, Bertha Mae Edwards, and a brother, William “Buddy” Beukay are both deceased. He is survived by his younger brother, Johnnie Brown; daughter, Charpata Candace Coval; son, Willanchas Coval; devoted ex-wife and friend, Naomi Patricia Coval; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Viewing and Funeral Service is scheduled from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 am on July 3, 2018 at McCann-Healey Funeral Home at 851 Monmouth Street, Gloucester City, NJ 08030. The burial service is scheduled for 12:30 p.m. on July 3, 2018 at Brigadier General William C. Doyle Veterans Cemetery at 350 Province Line Rd., Wrightstown, NJ 08562. In lieu of cards and flowers, please send memorial donations in Charles’ name to: AtlantiCare Hospice-P.O. Box 1626, Pleasantville, NJ 08232. Please write in memo: Charles Lee Coval.

Kathleen Caruso (John); Terry Kelly; William P. Kelly (Diane); Paul D. Kelly (Patricia); and Grace M. Kupcha (Paul). Also survived by grandchildren: Sean M. Kelly (Susan); J. Peter Kelly (Kim); Thomas M. Kelly; Susie Krone (David); Amanda Rose Kelly; Katherine M. Caruso; Michael Caruso (Jaime); Maura Kelly Keiser (Craig); William F. Kelly (Erin); Brian P. Kelly (Megan); Patrick A. Kelly; P. Daniel Kelly, Jr.; Colin G. Kelly; and Matthew F. Kelly. Also survived by six great grandchildren: Mary Grace Kelly; Catherine Kelly; Audrey Kelly; Emma Kelly; and Lauren Kelly.

Dr. Frank Kelly was born in Kansas City, Missouri in 1922 and raised in Peoria, Illinois as an only child of Joe and Ada Kelly.

He attended Spalding Institute and graduated in 1939. In 1939 he enrolled at the University of Notre Dame. He earned his B.S. in three years and thereafter enrolled at Northwestern University Medical School from which he earned his Doctor of Medicine degree in 1945.

While an undergraduate he acquired his pilot's license having taken pilot training at Bendix Field in South Bend.

He served as a Lieutenant J.G. in the United States Navy as a Medical Officer assigned to Great Lakes Naval Hospital during World War II and was Honorably Discharged in 1946.

He also participated as a volunteer for high altitude endurance training for the Navy.

While at Notre Dame, he befriended a classmate from Gloucester City, Bill Costello. Through Bill, Frank met Bill's sister, Catherine, and the two were married on September 18, 1944 while Frank was still in medical school.

Eventually, Frank and Catherine "Cass" moved to Gloucester City and raised seven children, all of whom attended St. Mary's grammar school and Gloucester Catholic High School. Frank and Catherine considered it a blessing that they were able to impart their faith and devotion to their children and grandchildren.

Dr. Kelly located his office on Broadway in Brooklawn and served generations of families in the Gloucester City, Brooklawn and Westville area until his retirement. Over the years, Dr. Kelly worked at Cooper Hospital, Our Lady of Lourdes, Burlington County and Zurbrugg Hospital in various capacities as well as performing research at Fox Chase. Dr. Kelly also served as Plant Physician at RCA in Camden.

His former patients will always remember Dr. Kelly with his black bag and his pipe, making house calls and having walk-in office hours.

An avid outdoorsman, Dr. Kelly has always enjoyed boating, fishing, hunting, hiking and flying.

Dr. Kelly also served for decades as team doctor to Gloucester High School and Gloucester Catholic High School athletics.

In the 1950's he was one of the early area doctors selected to provide lectures for engaged couples in the Diocesan Pre Cana program.

In 1977 he was hired as Medical Director for the Camden County Hospital at Lakeland and remained there until retirement. He was especially proud of Lakeland's accreditation by the Joint Commission during his tenure.

In 1978 he was named Citizen of the Year by the Rotary and Lions Clubs of Gloucester City.

In 1982 he was granted the honor of being named a Knight of St. Gregory the Great by then Pope John Paul II in recognition of his years of service to his community and the church.

Affectionately referred to as “Bobby” by his grandchildren, Frank greatly enjoyed sharing stories of his experiences, life lessons and witty sayings. He will be forever remembered and greatly missed by his family and all whom he encountered.
