JOANNE F. RYAN (June 6th)

Joanne Frances Ryan (née Pummer), 67, of Garfield, NJ passed on peacefully May 25, 2019 in hospice after a long battle with illness, at the age of 67, surrounded by friends and family.

Joanne is survived by her beloved children, TJ Ryan of Maywood, NJ and Heather DiPiazza of Philadelphia, PA; and two grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her husband, Timothy Ryan of Garfield, and her five siblings Christopher Pummer of Chevy Chase, MD, Suzanne Reilly of Maywood, NJ and Julie Korogodon of Monroe, CT, as well as Diane Hazard and John Richard Pummer, who are rejoicing with her in heaven. She also leaves behind many cherished relatives, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Daughter of Rowland Pummer and Rosemary (Donahue) Pummer, Joanne was born in New York and raised in Maywood, NJ. She was born with Cerebral Palsy, at a time when inclusion for and sensitivity to people with disabilities were not common. She persevered despite adversity, and graduated from high school as well as attended classes at Bergen County Community College and completed clerical training through Easter Seals, where she met her good friend, Lynn Kovelkoski, of Walden, NY.

Joanne was a devoted, nurturing full-time mother to her children. She taught them the value of love, compassion and hard-work. They remember her as a tenacious woman and patient mother who always encouraged them to pursue their goals. She worked hard to provide a life and education that would allow them to make a difference in the world. With an avid belief in philanthropy, she always encouraged them to volunteer and help those less fortunate.

Joanne was known for her faithfulness in God, and echoed that devotion through the lives she touched. She was warm-hearted, brave, caring, trusting, and at times, a real spitfire. She will forever be remembered as a woman of strength, great humility, passion, humor and self-sacrifice.

In lieu of flowers, donations are welcome in her honor at www.campfatimanj.org. Camp Fatima is an all-volunteer run camp for the disabled, which is free for campers and their families and funded exclusively by donations. Each camper has their own counselor and enjoys a week of unforgettable care, friendship and experiences, including swimming, arts & crafts, karaoke, dance parties, interactive performances, color run, fireside s'mores, outdoor movie nights, sing-a-longs, talent show, petting zoo, and so much more. Those who age out of the summer camp are invited to participate in the Adult Weekend Program, offered two weekends in the fall and two weekends in the spring, also free of charge.

ALBERT F. CIPOLONE (June 13th)

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11 a.m. on June 12 at St. Joseph the Worker Parish, Haddon Township for Albert F. Cipolone, 95, of Haddon Township who surrounded by his loving family passed away on June 7, 2019.

Predeceased by his first wife, Albena Fillari. Loving husband of 26 years to Dolores (nee Gibson), father of Louis Cipolone (Marilyn) and Marie Cipolone. Beloved grandfather of Jessica (Walter), Erica Paciello, Larisa and Albena. Great grandfather of Abigail. Also, step-father of Carla Weis, MD, Jay Morris (Deb), George Morris (Pamela) and Michael Morris (Ninda), nine step-grandchildren and five step-great grandchildren.

Albert was a lifelong resident of Brooklawn, the youngest of seven children. His family farmed ground and grew vegetables. As a child, Albert enjoyed picking fresh vegetables off the vines and eating them raw. His grandfather raised bees, rabbits, goats and grapes for winemaking. He grew up on goat cheese and day old bread. He remembers his mother making delicious cinnamon buns in an old woodstove, using fresh honey from the bees and making her own pasta and ravioli.

Albert was one of the founding parishioners of St. Maurice Church in Brooklawn. He proudly served his country in WWII as a rifleman in the infantry, fighting in France and Germany; wounded twice receiving The Purple Heart and Bronze Star with oak leaf cluster.

Albert was a retired carpenter gifted with a wonderful imagination and creativity. There was nothing he couldn't fix and he was happiest when he had a project to work on, whether in the yard or house (which he built himself in 1948).

He loved cooking Italian style, enjoyed eating and making wine. He had a fantastic memory for the past and delighted in telling stories of his childhood days. He believed in helping others who needed it, never hesitating even if a stranger approached him. He always gave willingly whether monetary or physical. Albert was a member of the Brooklawn American Legion Post 72 and Gloucester City Senior Citizens Association. He was an avid pinochle player, taking up painting in his eighties and learning to play bridge at age 88. In later years he enjoyed doing jigsaw puzzles on the iPad.
