ALEXA RIGELS RICHAMOND (June 9)

In honor of her wishes, no formal services were held for Alexa Riegels Richmond, 81, of Medford Lakes who passed away at her home on May 23, 2016.

Born December 27, 1934 in Pomona, California to Josephine Brown Riegels and Roy Max Riegels. She spent much of her young adult years split between California and Vermont. She eventually set down roots in East Calais and Hardwick, Vermont. She was the older sister to Helen Riegels Mackey, Theodore Myers (deceased) and Katherine Myers (died in infancy). Her heart broke in July 2013 when her son, David Richmond, was killed in an accident. She is survived by her daughter Maya Richmond, son-in-law Greg Coolidge, and granddaughter Olivia Coolidge with whom she lived with during the last few years of her life. Alexa deeply appreciated the kindness her son-in-law always showed her. And found great joy being a part of her granddaughter life.

Alexa was fortunate to be so close to her sister Helen and brother-in-law Allen Mackey, nephews Scott Mackey and Blake Mackey and their compassionate loving families. Many good times were spent with the Mackey family and they were always there when needed.

Alexa graduated Wilmington High School (Vermont) in 1953. After years of working and supporting her family she decided to return to college to get her teaching degree from Johnson State College and then her master's degree from Saint Michael's College in special education. Alexa found great joy working at Hardwick Elementary school. Her fellow professionals became her extended family and teaching gave Alexa a sense of purpose.

She was an avid gardener. She planted a veggie garden wherever she lived. Her love of animals was passed on to her children and granddaughter. A house was never a home without pet hair and fresh veggies. Her quirky sense of humor will be missed. She was the source of great stories and the subject of many wonderful memories that will live on as family stories.

Her ashes will rest-off the Big Sur, California coastline. Funeral Arrangements were entrusted to McCann-Healey Funeral Home, 851 Monmouth Street, Gloucester City.

LAWRENCE V. RUFF SR. (June 9)

A Ceremony of Remembrance was held for Lawrence V. Ruff, Sr., of Mt. Ephraim and Bellmawr who on the morning of June 3, 2016, through the darkest night, today rose the morning star, "Uncle Vinny" passed away peacefully at his home in Bellmawr and the Ruff families were granted the serenity to accept the things they could not change.

The greatest measure of a man is not measured in the crucible of imperfections, but rather, in the metamorphoses of what he becomes. We're all broken. However, that's how the light gets in.

On February 19, 1990 Vinny Ruff found the courage and wisdom to change the things he could. Vinny was humble. He kept it simple, and was the diamond in the rough, who stepped in, accepted and blended two families with his witty charm and dedication that could do no wrong. Vinny was a jokester who exuded kindness and knew what you put out in the world comes back to you because he always had a seat for you...

Lawrence V. Ruff, Sr. was born in Bristol, PA and had been a longtime Mt. Ephraim and Bellmawr, resident. Vinny had contributed to the manpower of our nation and together with his friends; Ted, Dominic, Ralph & Chick enlisted and Vinny uphold the ideals of our American Freedoms flagging aircraft in the U.S. Navy. He worked as a warehouseman for White Westinghouse in Huntingdon Valley, PA for many years and started every day's routine with a donut and coffee. Vinny enjoyed camping, antique cars and was an avid bowler who was in the Fellowship league for over 28 years where he served as the Friday night flipper. "Uncle Vinny" was a friend, sponsor, leader and inspiration, at the K.I.S.S. Club in Woodbury, who would help anyone celebrate the day. He was a lifelong member, past President and Treasurer who organized bike runs, barbeques and talent shows among many other things. At home, Vinny enjoyed pinochle, the sounds of the oldies and embraced the coming of age tradition of taking his children for their first tattoo at Headlight Harry's in Westville. Vinny knew that a bad day of fishing was better than a good day of work but was really his wisdom that made those fishing trips worth all the while. Keep it simple, there's no easy way to do this. So do it right; weep, laugh, watch, pray, love, live, give thanks and praise, comfort, mend, honor and remember...

Vinny leaves to cherish his memory, his wife of 27 years , Pat (nee Fine) Ruff of Bellmawr. He is the father of; Dawn (Bubba Hall) of Clayton, Kelley (Marty) Seitz of Mt. Ephraim, Lawrence V., Jr. "Buddy" (Ali) of Barrington, Steven (Allison) of Blackwood, Michael (Chrissy) of Blackwood and Jeff McAdams of Scranton, PA. He is the proud grandfather of 15 and great grandfather of 5. He is also survived and will be sadly missed by his furry kids Maggie and Max as well as his brother Chickie Ruff.

The time honored tradition of reuniting those we love with nature will be held privately.

As an expression of sympathy and in lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the K.I.S.S. Club 818 N. Broad St. Woodbury, NJ 08096.

JOHN A. GALLAGHER

April 7, 1930 ~ June 8, 2016 (June 16)

Memorial services were held at Etherington-Creran Funeral Home, 700 Powell Street, Gloucester City for John A. Gallagher, who passed away on June 8, 2016.

John A. Gallagher was born in Gloucester City to William Gallagher and Roseanna (Valentine) Gallagher in 1930. He was their second child after William, then followed by his brother, Robert, and sister, Shirley. A consummate lover of animals, young John was hired by his uncles to care for their horses. This experience, combined with his outstanding athleticism, led him to being hired as an exercise boy for Calumet Farms at Garden State Race Track. In 1951, at the age of 21, he enlisted in the United States Air Force. The USAF recognized his athletic ability and he was chosen to play on and coach an Air Force baseball team who traveled throughout the Philippines and Korea to play against USAF base teams.

After the Korean War, he was assigned to be the head administrator of the Officers' Club at Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines. He was selected to be an administrator in the USAF's first Tactical Nuclear Unit in England in the 1960s. His experience and athleticism made him the choice to become a member of the United States Air Force first Army Ranger trained unit. His next assignment sent him to Phang Rang, Viet Nam where he participated in the now declassified Operation Palace Dog. It was here where Sergeant Gallagher earned the Bronze Star for bravery. He retired from the USAF in 1971, having served honorably for 20 years. Upon his return to the US, he and his first wife raised their child, John Patrick Gallagher. After her death, John returned to his native New Jersey.

He married Rita Rastelli DiGiulio, and enjoyed his role as a father not only to his son, John, but also Stephen, Arlene, Nicholas, Carla DiGiulio, and later, Mary Beth Gallagher. He was a calm and confident coach who rarely yelled, unless it was in praise of a good play. When not coaching, he tirelessly supported his children and their athletic endeavors. Traveling to watch a football, baseball, softball, field hockey, soccer game, or wrestling match was always an easy decision. He coached baseball at St. James High School in Carney's Point, and was the men's varsity assistant coach when they won the Group I State Championship in 1989. Life changes pushed him back to his native Gloucester City. He loved to hear the train rumble through the city and the church bells of St. Mary's on Monmouth Street.

The house was also conveniently located near his favorite candy store, Duffy's Fine Chocolates, and down the street from O'Donnell's bar and restaurant. In retirement, he enjoyed annual golf trips with his sons and extended family. He enjoyed attending Single Parent Society dances where he fast became known as one of the most well-dressed and smoothest dancers in the ballroom. He met his fiancée, Maryann DellaPolla at one dance and amassed a strong network of friends throughout the senior dancing scene. A lifelong lover of all the Philadelphia sports' teams and Notre Dame Football, he was able to see the Irish get a great win against Temple in Philadelphia in 2015. He was surrounded by love and is survived by his children, Stephen DiGiulio (Anne), John Gallagher (Tammy), Nicholas DiGiulio (Denise), Carla DiGiulio, Mary Beth Gallagher (April Chatman-Royce), and grandchildren, Eva, Andrea, Hannah, Thomas, Marisa, Nicole, Christina DiGiulio, and EnzoDehlen-Giulio, and his fiancée, Maryann DellaPolla.

Interment will be private at the request of his family.
