GLORIA DOOLEY (June 21st)

Memorial services will be held on Monday, June 25, 5-6 p.m. at Bethel Church, 1583 Blackwood-Clementon Road, Blackwood for Gloria Jean Dooley, 71, (nee Walters) of Gloucester City who passed away on June 7, 2018.

Gloria was a lifelong resident of Gloucester City. She married her high school sweetheart, Woodrow A. Dooley, Jr. and was a loving Mother to her children, Gloria L. Dooley (Anibal Gonzalez), Colleen S. Casey (Bill) and Woodrow A. Dooley III (Jennifer Helder); Beloved "Pink" to her grandchildren John Homan, Sr. (Danielle Berstler), Cristina Elena Mayers, Desirae Maria Dooley, William G. Casey, Jr., Danica Abigail Dooley, Cailin Jean Casey and Delaney Kathryn Dooley; great-grandchildren Anthony Angel Martinez, Aislynn Homan and John Homan, Jr. Caring sister of George W. Walters Jr. (Her twin) and Richard J. Walters; many cherished Aunts, Uncles, Nieces and Nephews, in-laws and cousins. Predeceased by her parents George Washington Walters, Sr. and Lillian May Friezer, of Gloucester City and brothers Donald and Jack Garland Walters.

Gloria managed and tended bar at the Red Mill Inn located on Broadway in Gloucester City, for almost 30 years, until its closing. She was a tiny 'red head' who charmed you with her beautiful smile and shared her contagious laugh with all. She was an avid bowler throughout her life, first with her Golden Girls and then switched to Wii bowling with the ladies at the Senior Center.

She enjoyed the competition and even scored several perfect 300 games. She loved going to the casinos, the goodwill, thrift stores and flea markets; she played pinnock once a week with her family for the last 50+ years and again with her good friends at the Seniors Center and just cherished time spent laughing and loving family and friends. She could do everything from sewing and crochet to field dressing an animal and shooting a gun. She was an inspiration to all who knew her and loved by many. Always a Giver in life, she continued to give even in death, as her last gift was her body to science, with the hope that she could continue to help others.

All are invited to come celebrate her wonderful life and to honor her on Monday, June 25, 5-7 p.m. at Bethel Church, 1583 Blackwood-Clementon Road, Blackwood.

HELENA WIRTH (June 21st)

Thomas will be lovingly remembered by his wife of 59 years, Ruth A. Murphy, and his children, Thomas G. Murphy (Ceil) and Stacey G. Murphy, and will be forever adored by his grandchildren Casandra P. Murphy (Ian) and Zachary T. Murphy. Thomas will also be fondly celebrated by his surviving sisters, Mary Romania, Patricia White, and Veronica White.

Born to John and Margaret Murphy on January 11, 1937, in Gloucester City, Thomas was predeceased by siblings Alice, Margaret, Catherine, John, Theresa James, Francis, Agnes, Elaine, and Joan.

Thomas was a devoted family man, proud U.S. Air Force Veteran, dedicated employee of the Philadelphia Navy Yard, and a member of Brooklawn American Legion Post #72, the Brooklawn Board of Education and the Sportsmen A.C.

Thomas will always be remembered for his enduring commitment to his family and friends, and will be continuously cherished by those influenced by his generosity, benevolence, and enthusiastic passion for life. He demonstrated a magical ability to make others laugh, feel thoroughly loved, and welcomed.
