JASON, MY ANGEL, HAPPY BIRTHDAY!
Your ninth year in Heaven
Happy belated birthday, March 16 (March 24)

The letter you left me before you went to our Lord, was a beautiful way to ease my pain, but times when I miss you here with me my tears fall like rain.

You said you'd watch over me along with our King. Many times I can feel the sing you close by and I start whispering the song you and I use to sing....Chasing Cars.

We were as close as a parent and their children could be, so then I smile at all the cherished memories of you and me.

So on your 36th birthday I smile, look up at the clouds and say, you're in the best of company, now with our Saviour. Have a blessed and beautiful birthday my son, "Gloucester's Gentle Giant" Jay.

Everlasting love my angel, Momma

PATRICK F. MCGLADE (March 31)

A Celebration of life will be celebrated at a later date for extended family and friends for Patrick F. McGlade, 69, recently of Cape May and formerly of Gloucester City, who passed away peacefully in his sleep in the comfort of his own home on Tuesday, March 22, 2016.

He graduated from Gloucester Catholic High School in 1964 and received his Bachelor's Degree in Business from Christian Brothers College.

He recently retired from NJ Transit as a driver, prior to that he worked in real estate and insurance sales.

In early 1970, Patrick was instrumental in founding and organizing one of the first girls basketball summer leagues in South Jersey.

Patrick was an avid fan of and supporter of girls basketball and many of the athletes from Gloucester Catholic High School teams and the Al Carino Girls Basketball Club of South Jersey benefited from his support by earning scholarships after the passage of Title IX.

Pat was kind and generous, always checking in with his siblings.

He took great pride in following his family's careers and accomplishments.

Basketball was a huge part of his life and March Madness was his favorite time of the year.

He is predeceased by his parents, Peter and Theresa McGlade and his younger brother, Peter "Uncle Pete" which includes his eight siblings, Christine (and Michael) Foley, Thomas Jefferson (and Rita) McGlade; Mary (and John) Schmidt; James A. ROSE (DIGREGORIO) ASPEN (March 31)

Family and friends (who were the center of Rose's life) may pay their respects to this remarkable woman on April 2, at 8:30 a.m., in her beloved Parish Church – which she lovingly decorated for 64 years, St. Joachim Parish, Annunciation Church, 601 W. Browning Rd., Bellmawr; and to participate in her Funeral Mass at 10 a.m. for Rose (DiGregorio) Aspen, 94, (the Flower Lady), of Bellmawr who passed on February 4, 2016 at Inspira Hospital, Woodbury.

Born in Penns Grove, Rose was the daughter of Dominic and Carmela DiBlasio DiGregorio.

She is survived by her son, Glenn Showalter of Seattle, Washington, as well as her brothers, Alvin and Sam (Rita), and sister-in-law, Grace DiGregorio.

Rose was also a loving aunt to many nieces and nephews, great- and great-great-nieces and nephews.

Her goddaughter, Gwen McKenney, whom she adored, also survives her, as well as her many, many friends.

In addition to her parents, Rose was predeceased by her husband, Martin Aspen, as well as her siblings, Hilda Parente, Santa Diregorio, Elvira Parlapiano, and John DiGregorio.

Rose was a well-respected floral designer who worked for more than 30 years for Sansone & Company Florist in Bellmawr.

Following her "retirement" she served her loyal clients from her home until a few months before her death. Nothing was too much work if it meant giving delight to others.

Following Mass, Rose will be laid to rest with Marty at Lawnside Cemetery in Woodstown.

Rose loved flowers and they are certainly most welcome as a tribute.

Those who wish, however, may make a contribution to St. Joachim Parish for a memorial in her name.
