Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at the Dominican Sister's Cemetery on the ground of Mount Saint Mary College for Sister Maureen Cooper, 82, OP of the Dominican Sisters of Hope, who passed away on May 8, 2019 in Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital, Camden.

The daughter of the late Ambrose A. and Mary (Powell) Cooper, she was born July 24, 1936 in Camden, New Jersey. Sister Maureen entered the novitiate of the Dominican Sisters of Newburgh, New York, in December 1954, made her First Profession in June 1956, and Final Profession in August 1959.

Sister Maureen earned her BA in Elementary Education from Mount Saint Mary College in Newburgh, New York, and her MA in Religious Education from LaSalle University in Philadelphia. As a child she attended Sacred Heart School in Camden and Camden Catholic High School. Before entering the convent, she worked part-time as a receptionist in Sacred Heart Rectory and full-time as a typist in the RCA plant after graduation from high school until entering the convent at Mount Saint Mary in Newburgh.

Early teaching assignments took Sister Maureen to several elementary schools in New Jersey: Saint Mary School in Paterson, Saint Patrick School in Woodbury, Saint Lawrence School in Lindenwold, and Sacred Heart School in Camden. In 1981, she moved to Saint Mary School in Gloucester. After 46 years of teaching elementary school, she moved from full-time teaching in June 2002, and worked as a teacher's aide, and as librarian at Saint Mary School in Gloucester, New Jersey. She retired in 2010 and served as volunteer Librarian in St. Mary's school until June 2011. In August, 2011 she moved to Gloucester Towne in Gloucester City, New Jersey until July 2014, when she moved to the Manor at St. Mary's in Cherry Hill, New Jersey.

One of her greatest joys during Sister Maureen's years of teaching was the privilege of teaching religious education to various grade levels and preparing children for the reception of their First Holy Communion and Confirmation. Sister Maureen is predeceased by her parents, Ambrose A. and Mary (Powell) Cooper, her brothers Edward, John, Peter and Philip and her sister Cecilia. She is survived by her sisters Frances and Patricia and several nieces and nephews.
